

CHAPTER 39.

An act to prevent the riding or driving over the grading of the Taylorsville extension of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio railroad.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Unlawful to drive or ride over line of R. R. graded from Statesville to Taylorsville.

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ride or drive any wagon, cart or other vehicle over the railroad grade between the town of Statesville in the county of Iredell, and the town of Taylorsville in the county of Alexander.

Misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. That any person or persons violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days: Provided, this act shall not apply to any person or persons crossing said railroad grade at the various crossings of the public and private ways intersecting said railroad grading.

Penalty.

Proviso as to crossings.

A. T. & O. R. R. Co. to post notices of this act along line of railroad.

SEC. 3. That said Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio railroad company or their agents shall cause to be posted six written or printed notices of the provisions of this act along the grade of said railroad between the towns of Statesville and Taylorsville, giving notice of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. That this act shall be in force on and after thirty days from its ratification.

In the general assembly read three times, and ratified this the 7th day of February, A. D. 1885.